Staff were very positive about it, kids were not as anxious about starting school next day, less crowding in the office on first day, helped things to run more smoothly. Thoughts for next year. Received 300 backpacks donated, very gender specific and will choose to not distribute those since it is not inclusive messaging. Instead, looking for ideas of how to distribute those instead of providing them to schools. Reading Partners, something new happening this year. See community members, not just parents, neighbors etc... anyone who would want to become a tutor, 2x per week someone would want to tutor, anyone interested would need to pass background check process. During school day for the whole year, building connection. The more volunteer the better, Targeting yellow blocks in school schedule.. Mix of times throughout the day, can select grade level etc... Katherine.rios@readingpartners.org  Kathy Rios is main contact. Team Read is another group, this will occur after school. Targeting 3, 4, 5 to elevate reading levels to raise reading scores to get those kids ready for middle schools. REWA enrichment program, have case manager supporting families.  Girls on the Run  SCORES – Soccer and Poetry  limited to certain number of students. Prioritize students of color and building social skills Room 124 is dissolved, instead, model has changed for kids to begin in homeroom classes first and then can retreat when needed as opposed to starting the day isolated.
